

Summer Camps Listing

Are you looking to get your summer camps, programs or activities in front of parents who are busily planning their children's vacation schedule? By listing your camp information with PortlandKidsCalendar, you've chosen to promote your summer programs via the area's most successful online resource created specifically for parents.

Now who looks super smart?

What's a "Summer Camps" listing?

The "Summer Camps" area of PortlandKidsCalendar lists information about local summer camps, programs and activities. A listing in this section will allow you to promote your summertime schedules to parents who are determining their children's vacation activities.

What's included?

Your business will be listed in the "Summer Camps" section with a custom description of your camp programs and offerings. Sweeten the pot by including fun photographs and make registration a cinch by providing direct sign-up links.

How many people will see your listing?

A lot. Our website gets over 4,000 unique users a month. Parents visit PKC because they trust us to provide them with authentic and engaging recommendations for their children's summertime activities. You connect with us and they'll connect with you.

Will your listing get noticed?

Yes. The "Summer Camps" sections has its own tab at the top of our website which is accessible from every page. This section is not a comprehensive directory listing like other areas of our site—only businesses serious about connecting with parents to promote their summer camps and programs will be included in this section.

What's the cost?

$50 per month (runs anytime from February through August).
